Quaker Consortium Program Registration Instructions

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR QUAKER CONSORTIUM STUDENTS:

- Quaker Consortium students studying at the University of Pennsylvania (UPENN) College of General Studies must abide by all student rules and regulations in place at UPENN.
- Quaker Consortium students must abide by the University of Pennsylvania (UPENN) College of General Studies deadlines associated with course registration for a term; those deadlines are listed on the following website: <http://www.sas.upenn.edu/CGS/resources/calendar.php#01>
- If you are having trouble with course registration, you should email cgs@sas.upenn.edu with subject line, "RR," and note your name, your home institution, course department, course number, section number, the problem, and that you are a Quaker Consortium student.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Complete the attached form except for section 3. NOTE: You can view a list of our available courses for each semester on our website, www.penncgs.org or at the UPENN Registrar's homepage, www.upenn.edu/registrar/
2. Take the completed form to your home school's Registrar for them to complete Section 3
3. Your home institution Registrar will deliver the signed form to the College of General Studies (CGS). CGS will enter you into the UPENN Student Records System and register you for courses. Within two (2) business days of receipt of your Registration Form, CGS will send you an email verifying that you have been entered in the UPENN system and notifying you of your course registration outcome. If we need further information at that time, we will make note of that in the email.
4. PENNCARD: Once you have been entered in the Student Records System and registered for classes, you should obtain your PennCard and PennKey Setup Code. To do this, you will need to go to the PennCard Center (Franklin Building Room 150, 3451 Walnut Street). The PennCard is the official University of Pennsylvania identification for students, faculty, and staff. The PennCard provides access to University facilities, services, cash convenience, and more
5. PENNKEY & PASSWORD: An important element of the University's online security is the PennKey, which is used to authenticate or prove one's identity to many of Penn's online computer systems. A PennKey and Password are required to access such resources as Penn InTouch (see below), Blackboard courseware, restricted library resources from off-campus computers, and public campus computers. To obtain the PennKey and Password, you will need use your PennKey Setup Code that you received at the PennCard center to register your PennKey and Password. To register your PennKey, you will need to go to the following website: <http://www.upenn.edu/computing/pennkey/>. If you have taken classes at Penn in previous semesters, you should already have a PennKey and Password. If you need to reset your password, you must go to the Registrar's office with a photo ID, located in the Franklin Building in Room 221, Hours: Monday – Friday, 9am-4:45pm.
6. EMAIL ADDRESS: Once you have your PennKey and Password, you must update your Penn Directory listing to include your home school email address. To update your directory listing, you can go to the following link: <http://www.upenn.edu/directories/> and click on "Update Directory Listings." NOTE: This is required! You must have an email address on file at UPENN in order to receive important messages from CGS, your instructors, and other parts of the University.
7. COURSE SCHEDULE VERIFICATION & UPDATING PERSONAL INFORMATION: Once you have a PennKey and Password, you can logon to PennInTouch, <https://sentry.isc.upenn.edu/intouch/>, to view your courses and to update your mailing address (if needed).
8. BILLING: You will be charged tuition by your home school for courses taken at Penn. You will be responsible to UPENN for all other fees. If you have questions about tuition, contact your home school Registrar. Any other charges incurred while you are a student at UPENN will appear on your e-bill and will be sent to the email address you list in the UPENN Directory.
