

“Made With Devotion”: The Don Yoder Collection of Religious Folk Art at Cabrini College

Exhibition Opening:
Monday, 25 February 2008

Exhibition Closing:
Wednesday, 23 April 2008

Grace and Joseph Gorevin Fine Arts Gallery
2nd Floor, Holy Spirit Library
Cabrini College, Radnor, PA – Admission is Free.

Exhibition Opening Events

Monday, 25 February 2008

Celebratory Lecture, Holy Spirit Library, Conference Room, 2nd Floor

“Belief, Emotions, and the Meaning of Religious Folk Art”

David J. Hufford, Professor Emeritus, Department of Medical Humanities, Penn State University College of Medicine
(Co-Sponsored with the Cabrini College Society For Religion and Science)

5:00 – 5:30 PM: Lecture
5:30- 5:45 PM Questions and Discussion

6:00 PM – 8:00 PM “Made With Devotion” Exhibition Opening and Reception,
Grace and Joseph Gorevin Fine Arts Gallery,
Holy Spirit Library, 2nd Floor

6:30 PM Remarks, Don Yoder, Professor Emeritus, Departments of Folklore and Folklife and Religious Studies, University of Pennsylvania;
Leonard Norman Primiano, Associate Professor, Department of Religious Studies, Cabrini College

This exhibition highlights hand-crafted devotional objects and other special Christian vernacular religious art now a part of Cabrini College’s permanent “Religious, Folk, Popular, and Liturgical Arts Collection.” In autumn 2006, the College purchased the private collection of religious folk art from Dr. Don Yoder. The Collection includes Roman Catholic and Protestant Christian art and artifacts from Europe and the Americas, especially folk paintings, statues, home shrines, prints and holy cards.