Reviewed Item:

1. The ancient belief that animals can change into men and vice versa.
3. All life was created from one substance which took on distinct features.
4. All living beings are united in a psychic or spiritual bond.
5. Often it was believed that the spirit of a dead man was transferred into the body of an animal.
6. According to Scandinavian folklore, seals originated from mortals who intentionally drowned themselves.
7. Every five descendant of the noyemen looks upon the seal as a kind of second-cousin in disgrace.
8. That the Egyptian pharaoh and all his men who drowned in the Red Sea...turned into seals.
9. Man kills seals despite the warnings of his former wife (a seal person). She comes to him and warns him that what he had done will bring bad luck. It does.
10. That for every animal on land, there was a comparable animal in the sea.
11. Seals mourn their dead after humans kill them: "Who killed Anna? Who killed Anna?"..."The same man, the same man, the man always..."
12. Selchies transformed into humans on the fifth day of the "Lamma Stream, a period of high tides. Variation as to when this occurs. (Seventh stream, variation)
14. Seals contained the souls of all the people drowned in the great flood. (Similar to Pharaoh legend, see 8)
15. If a girl was lost at sea, she was believed to have been taken by the selchies and changed into one of them.
16. Mothers painted the sign of the cross on their daughters' breasts whenever they would be travelling by sea.
17. Lovely young girl is betrothed to young man. While they are out fishing she is drowned, but tells him that she will be transformed into a white seal. This happens. He died too.
18. A jealous stepmother of a Norwegian kingdom changes the daughters to seals but has it that they would return to human state three times a year at a full bright moon.
19. The royal attendants in a Norwegian kingdom were sent as seals to Scotland and Ireland as secret emissaries: during day they were seals, at night, human.
20. Selchies are fallen angels or fallen human beings whose crimes were not serious enough to warrant punishment in Hell.
21. Seal skin can be donned or left behind, depending on whether the being is in human (on land) or seal (on sea) form.
22. Man of McPhee family imprisoned in cave by selchie woman. When he escaped she pursued and killed him. (This story possibly of confused origin)
23. The unsatisfied woman would go to selchie males for temporary love affairs.
24. Woman from one of the richest families in Orkney marries farm hand and is dissatisfied. Gets selchie lover, has children by him, children have webbed hands and feet. So do the descendants. By 1800's descendants still marked by horny crust on hands. Had to be chiselled off if offspring was to work. Children marked.
25. man married selchie woman and afterwards his life immune to danger. but he tussles with her ex-lover, a selchie-man, who gashes his cheek. offspring are marked.
26. offspring of selchie marriages or selchie-human mating are marked permanently through the generations.
27. if a child of a selchie would sit on a rock, when he got up the rock would show dampness and the vapor would turn to salt crystals.
28. these clans thought to be descended from the seal people: McCodrum, Conealy, O'Sullivan, O'Flaherty, McNomora, McConaghails. they would not eat seal meat (harm to him)
29. no member of any of the clans mentioned in -28 could eat seal meat without bringing misfortune on self.
30. islanders imagined that deep in the ocean there was a land with an atmosphere like that of the earth's surface. home of the merfolk. merfolk (on land under sea) had lungs that could function in both water and air, in order to swim from sea-earth to earth-earth.
these folks were half human half fish in appearance.
31. from that time on (see p 11), seals were special guardians of the mermaids.
32. sea trows: sea fairies: land trows: supernatural creatures who could voluntarily assume animal form. (usually the seal).
33. if someone was far from home and lost, a "Finn" would go into a trance, get news from the main home, plus an object from home. (selchie variant)
34. the play of lady odivere
35. ballad: selchie song: Jo Emmrance
