1) Intent to Enroll
If you have not already completed your Statement of Committal form, log in to your online application to accept or decline your place in the program. If we do not hear back from you by the deadline, your offer of admission may be withdrawn so that your place in the program can be offered to another applicant.

If your decision to participate in the program is contingent on financial aid, you should go ahead and select the response option that states: “Yes, I commit to participating IF my financial aid package is acceptable to me” or write to summerabroad@sas.upenn.edu with this information.
