

Yijuan Chen

C.V. (October 2009)

Address: H W Arndt Building
Australian National University
Canberra, ACT 0200, Australia

Email: yijuan.chen@anu.edu.au
Phone: +61 2 6125 4909

Personal Information:

Citizenship: China

Education

Ph.D. in Economics, University of Pennsylvania, USA, 2009

M.Sc. in Finance and Economics (with Distinction), University of Southampton, UK, 2002

Bachelor of Economics, Xiamen University, China, 1999

Employment

Lecturer, School of Economics, College of Business and Economics, Australian National University, 2009 –

Adjunct Research Fellow, Australian Centre for Economic Research on Health, 2009 –

Business Director, Xiamen SEZ Foreign Trade Group, China, 1999 – 2000

Research Interests

Applied Microeconomics, with particular interest in Industrial Organization and Health Economics

Working Papers

“Why Are Health Care Report Cards So Bad (Good)?”, 2008

“Character Evidence and Regulation of Skilled Experts”, 2008

“Word-of-mouth in Movies with Platform Release: Theory and Evidence”, Joint with Qiang Pan, 2007

“Dynamic Innovation of Durable Complementary Goods”, 2006

Conference Presentations

7th International Industrial Organization Conference, Boston, USA, 2009

American Economic Association Annual Meeting, New Orleans, USA, 2008

Teaching Experience

Australian National University: Course Instructor, Undergraduate Level: Microeconomics 1, Managerial Economics

University of Pennsylvania: Course Instructor, Undergraduate Level: Statistics for Economics, Economic Growth and Stability, Introductory Macroeconomics, Game Theory, Introductory Microeconomics

Honors and Awards

Nominee of Penn Prize for Excellence in Teaching by Graduate Students, University of Pennsylvania, 2007

Judith Rodin Fellowship, University of Pennsylvania, 2006-2007

University of Pennsylvania Fellowship, 2003-2004

Economics Research Studentship, University of Southampton, 2003
Development Trust Studentship, University of Southampton, 2002-2003