3. To select single-sided or double-sided printing. Click on the drop down menu below and make your selection for single-sided or double-sided printing.

4. Now you're ready to click Print.
5. Set a name and password for your print job; specify how many copies to print

Enter your PennKey user name in the top box. This will help you find your job when you go to the print release station; jobs will be listed alphabetically by the PennKey of people who have submitted jobs to that printer.

Then, enter a simple password that you’ll use to release your job; enter it again to confirm that you’ve typed the password correctly. Putting a password on your job means that no one else will be able to print out your work.

Finally, enter a name that will help you identify this specific job.

Click “NEXT”  You’ll be asked how many copies you want to print

Click “PRINT” to send your job to the printer.
6. Go to the release station and collect your printout.

Swipe your card at the release station; you’ll see a screen which displays all jobs waiting to print. Find your job, click on the title and click the PRINT button. You’ll be prompted to provide the password you set for the job. Your PennCash account will be charged, and your job will print.
