

CILS Preparatory Course Registration

This course is specifically designed as preparation for the CILS exam (Certificate in Italian as a Second Language) of the University for Foreigners of Siena, Italy, which can be taken at UPenn in December and June. Next exam: June 11, 2015 at 9:00 am.

By means of exercises and practice tests, students become familiar with the CILS testing methods and are offered the opportunity to concentrate and improve on those areas of the Italian language that they find most difficult.

Levels B2-C1

March 11 – June 10, 2015, Wednesdays 6:00-8:00pm

Williams Hall 214 – 255 S. 36th Street, UPenn

Name (first and last) _____

Postal address _____
_____
_____

E-mail _____

You will need a picture ID to identify yourself the day of the test

Passport    Driver License    School ID - ID # _____

Course fee: $200 to be paid by check to the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania with the memo CILS Course. The check must be sent to the following address or handed in to the instructor on the first day of class,

Center for Italian Studies at UPenn
Williams Hall 549
255 S. 36th Street
Philadelphia, PA
19104-6305

Check # _____

The CILS exam and the preparatory course can be taken by anybody who is interested in certifying their knowledge of Italian as a foreign language, current students and/or professionals. There are six different proficiency levels from elementary to advanced (A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, C2), and you can re-test as your knowledge of Italian improves (after taking the A1 certificate, you can take the test again for a certificate at a higher level). Please note that a B2 certificate is valid also as language exam for admittance to any Italian University, and that with a C2 certificate you can apply to the position of official translator (Italian to English), in several countries.

Exam registration fees: Level A1, A2: $60 – Level B1: $140 – Level B2: $160 – Level C1: $200 – Level C2: $225 (the check for the June 11 exam must be paid no later than Apr. 30, 2015)