263rd Commencement

Class of 2019

May 20, 2019
DEAR GRADUATING STUDENTS, PARENTS & GUESTS,

A Penn tradition more than two and a half centuries old, Commencement is a cherished celebration of our students’ high achievements. I warmly invite you to join us on May 20 for what will be another historic and joyous occasion.

Sincerely,

THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA’S 263RD COMMENCEMENT

The ceremony will feature the conferral of degrees, the awarding of honorary degrees, greetings by University officials and a Commencement speaker, to be announced. Candidates for degrees in May 2019, as well as those who have completed degree requirements in August or December 2018, are encouraged to attend Commencement and to march in the procession. Academic regalia is required. Information about academic regalia will be provided early in 2019.

Monday, May 20, 2019
Franklin Field, 33rd and South Streets
Gates will open at 8:30 a.m.

Degree candidates will assemble in Hamilton Village (39th & Locust Walk) by 8:45 a.m. and enter Franklin Field at about 9:30 a.m. The ceremony will begin at approximately 10:15 a.m., upon the arrival of the academic procession. The ceremony will be held rain or shine. Tickets are not required.

Webcast of the Commencement Ceremony
Those unable to attend Penn’s 263rd Commencement may view the ceremony live over the Internet. Coverage from Franklin Field will begin at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, May 20.

Seating for Guests with Disabilities
Seating for guests who use wheelchairs and for those with limited physical mobility or medical conditions will be available on the field and in the lower stands. Information on reserving this type of seating will be available in early 2019. Commencement information materials are available in alternate format upon request. Advance notice is required.

Plan Your Visit
Graduation guests are strongly advised to make hotel and travel reservations as early as possible. Visit commencement.upenn.edu/commencement/visitor/planvisit.html for information.
