

Master Teacher Fellowship in Global Education Application

The Master Teacher Fellowship in Global Education will be awarded to two teachers this April. The winning fellows must be K-12 teachers in the Delaware Valley who have shown substantial commitment to incorporating global studies into the school or classroom.

Each fellow will receive a $500 stipend to be used for conference/ training registration, travel to a conference/ training, classroom materials, etc. The Master Teacher Fellows will serve as education ambassadors for the University of Pennsylvania's Middle East Center and South Asia Centers from April 2017 to April 2018 and lead one public workshop for pre-service and current educators. Upon completion of the fellowship, a brief report will be required.

To apply, complete the questions below and send your current resume to mec-info@sas.upenn.edu.

Application Deadline: Sunday, April 9, 2017.

Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone Number: _____

School: _____

Type of School:

Public School (non-charter) _____

Public Charter School _____

Parochial School _____

Independent/ Private School _____

Community College _____

Other _____

Grade Level(s): _____

Summary of your academic background and employment history as it relates to global education:

Will you be working full-time in the 2017-2018 academic year?

Yes _____

No _____

Have you attended an event or workshop put on by the Middle East Center or the South Asia Center, at the University of Pennsylvania?

Yes _____

No _____

Please list the events or workshops you attended:

Master Teacher Fellows will serve as education ambassadors for the Centers and lead a public teacher workshop for current and pre-service teachers. Give us an idea of a workshop you might like to lead:

How would you like to spend the $500 stipend?

