The following are other expenses to consider which are not included in the program fee. The actual cost will vary depending on the student's spending habits, extent of personal travel and fluctuations in the exchange rate or inflation.

As a reference: Students who attended the program in previous years estimated their on-site expenses for the six weeks (excluding the roundtrip ticket) to average $1,500-$2,000. Some students reported they spent $600-$900 on daily expenses. Those who shopped a lot or traveled extensively to other parts of France and Europe on the weekends spent more, and those who were budget-minded and did little traveling spent under $1,000.

PASSPORT & VISA (if needed) A valid passport is required. A visa is not needed for U.S. Citizens. Citizens from other countries should confirm if they need a visa.
HEALTH INSURANCE Make sure you understand how your current health insurance works overseas and if necessary, purchase additional coverage. All participants are covered by Penn's group policy with International SOS for Emergency and Medical Assistance. This primarily provides coverage for emergency evacuation and repatriation as well as in-country medical and legal referrals.
ROUND-TRIP AIRFARE to Paris, France Estimate $1,200-$1,700 from the U.S. East Coast. We recommend purchasing travel insurance for any unexpected trip cancellation or interruption.
LOCAL TRANSPORTATION Home stays are within walking distance or simple public transportation from classes. A one way bus ticket in Tours costs around $2. Include costs for train from Tours to Paris (between US $35-$85) at the end of the program, as well as other personal travel.
MEALS Estimate $15-20/day for lunches.
COURSE MATERIALS Estimate up to $125, depending on course selection.
